Every report Angie's List receives about your business will be posted and available for our members to read, but only reviews from Angie's List members will impact your grades and rating on Angie's List. We encourage non-members who submit reviews to become members. If they become a member after they review your business, their reviews will be factored into your overall grade and rating.

Keep in mind, Angie's List maintains a strict policy against self-reviews. We do not accept reviews on your business from affiliated individuals like employees and family members. In addition, we don't allow reviews from competitors.

There are measures in place to prohibit any individual from manipulating their way on to Angie's List, stacking the deck for or against any one business, reviewing their own business or reviewing a competitor. The only way to stack the deck on Angie's List is to consistently exceed your customers' expectations!

We use Angie's List to assess whether we're doing a good job keeping valued customers like you happy.
